

WEEKLY GAZETTE

MAY 2, 2025

Firstly, students who participated in the recent Science Fair were awarded certificates in acknowledgment of their efforts and enthusiasm. The fair showcased a wide range of creative and thoughtful projects, and the certificates honored the hard work and scientific curiosity demonstrated by all participants.

In addition, top-performing students on the IXL learning platform were recognized with special vouchers. These awards were given to those who showed exceptional dedication and performance, reflecting their commitment to continuous learning and improvement in mathematics and English.

The assembly concluded with applause and encouragement for all students to keep striving for excellence in their academic pursuits.

KEY STAGE TWO AND THREE ASSEMBLY REPORT

The Key Stage Two assembly took place on Tuesday and Ks 3 on Wednesday in the dining hall, bringing together students and staff for a celebratory and inspiring event. The highlight of the assembly was the recognition of students' achievements in two key areas of academic excellence.

REPORT ON YEAR 7 GIRLS' MEETING WITH THE PRINCIPAL

On April 29, 2025, a group of Year 7 girls had the opportunity to meet with the school principal in the boardroom for a special lunch meeting. This initiative is part of a new tradition introduced by the principal, aimed at fostering open dialogue between students and school leadership in a relaxed and engaging setting.

During a shared pizza lunch, the principal and the students discussed various issues affecting their school experience, including areas that need improvement and suggestions for positive change. The students were encouraged to speak openly, and their ideas and concerns were noted with great interest and appreciation.

This meeting demonstrates the school's commitment to amplifying student voices and promoting inclusive decision-making, creating a platform where learners feel heard and valued.

The session concluded on a positive note, with the principal thanking the girls for their contributions and assuring them that their feedback would be considered in shaping future developments at the school.
